

A FIRE DRILL IS ESSENTIAL

Lesson Taught At Collinwood Should Not Be Forgotten In Janesville.

AS A MATTER OF PRECAUTION ONLY

Pupils in City Schools Should Be Taught As Well As The Teachers How To Leave Building In Time Of Necessity.

Are the Janesville schools and their pupils properly safeguarded against a horror similar to that which befell the Cleveland school yesterday, or not?

This is the question that presents itself to the minds of every parent in Janesville today. The details of the awful scenes in Collinwood have stirred every parent's heart with dismay and fear that a similar occurrence might come to Janesville, is uppermost in their minds.

In many respects Janesville is better protected than was the Collinwood school.

At Collinwood all the doors opened inward. In Janesville they open out. In Collinwood the fire department had no high ladders. In Janesville there are several which more than reach the top of our highest buildings.

In Collinwood the smaller children were in the upper stories. In Janesville they are all on the first floor.

In one respect, however, Collinwood and Janesville are similar: That of fire drills.

Real fire drills, drills at unexpected times, have been practically unknown in Janesville, with the exception of the Adams school. They have, however, a simulated drill which Superintendent Buell believes answers this requirement. This, however, does not serve the purpose of an unexpected summons and is something that is regularly expected, the pupils being ready for it.

Chief Klein believes in a system of emergency and spontaneous fire drills to insure the pupils to the alarm. He believes it would prevent a panic in case of an actual fire. Unexpected summons at intervals, he thinks, would drill the children better than the more formal drills.

Mr. Buell, however, points to the tests he made this morning in the different schools as an example of the efficiency of his system. These tests are what should come every so often. The real value of any system of drill is in its efficiency and the properly test it.

Over a year ago the question of fire drills was brought up in the meeting of the school commissioners and laid on the table, the matter being left to the discretion of Superintendent Buell.

Of this board, S. M. Smith, member from the third ward, said this morning: "I believe a system of unexpected fire drills would be a good thing. They would do no harm and I believe should be instituted. They would prepare the pupils for emergencies better than the regular drills."

J. M. Fisher, member at large, said: "I am heartily in favor of a system of unexpected fire drills in our city schools. As I remember it, there was a measure passed at one of the board meetings last fall with this in view, it being the idea that they should be held frequently without warning to the pupils, to teach them what to expect in case it should be necessary to empty the buildings quickly."

James Shaver, member from the first ward, said: "Mr. Buell's idea is that the simulated drills answer this purpose. However, it is possible that unexpected fire drills would be a good thing and perhaps they should be instituted."

Francis Grant, member from the second ward, said: "I have always been in favor of unexpected fire drills in the city schools and introduced a motion that they be held once a week at unexpected times over a year ago. Mr. Buell, however, thought it would be best for the pupils and the matter was dropped. I think, however, they should be instituted."

Dr. Buckmaster, member at large and president of the board, said: "I am surprised to learn that unexpected fire drills have not been in use in our schools right along. I had always understood they were. I am sure the board ordered them instituted. They are essential. The regular simulated drills do not take their place. I shall investigate the matter at once, as I am satisfied they should be in vogue."

Yesterday afternoon a thorough investigation of the lack of fire drills in the city schools was made. The following is the result which may interest many parents:

Adams school—Miss Clarke, principal; fire drill once a week unless severe cold weather came; 110 pupils in building; school in best shape of any; no fire escapes; hallways and stairs large and ample.

CAPTAIN MANSFIELD MONROE COMPANY TO RETIRED FOR AGE EXTEND OPERATIONS

Civil War Veteran Retired—Had Long and Famous Career in Different Vessels.

Washington, D. C., March 5.—The name of a gallant sea fighter was removed from the active list of the United States navy today through the retirement for age of Captain Henry Buckingham Mansfield. Captain Mansfield graduated from the naval academy in 1867. Prior to that he had attracted attention by his famous trip in the schooner yacht America in search of Confederate privateers. Later he added to his fame by commanding a launch from the frigate Mohican in the expedition which "cut out" and burned the practical steamer Forward in Tecapan Bay, Mexico.

Now officers of the navy have seen more extended or more varied service than has Captain Mansfield. As a midshipman he served in the Macedonian, Minnesota and other vessels of the old navy. In addition to his exploits on the America and the Mohican he took part in the eclipse expedition to Siberia in 1869. In the early seventies he was employed chiefly in coast survey and hydrographic work. In his long and active career he has been connected with the light house service and with the various navy yards on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. He was in command of the Naval War College in 1903 and two years later commanded the battleship Iowa.

Great Britain fears a Hindoo revolt. Boers charged with trying to force crises. She is making steady preparation to mobilize her entire army. London, March 5.—Great Britain is gradually coming to realize more and more the chances of a revolt in India. It is hinted that Boers are hatching the revolt with the ultimate object easily defined. This interpretation of the Boer movements in return for British magnanimity in giving home government to the Transvaal is amazing, but generally credited, even by the government's critics.

On the other hand such reformers as Lala Lajpat Rai are very anxious to gain home rule for India. Lala Rai is a self-made man. He is about 40 years of age, was born in poverty and had an uphill fight to secure an education. While still in his teens he began to practice law. He achieved such success that the present secretary of state for India designated him as "an accomplished lawyer." He is a religious and social reformer, an educationalist and philanthropist, and a political leader. He is highly respected throughout India.

Mr. Rai holds that "he who severs his religion from his politics sows the seeds of chaos to the world." He always has preached self-reliance and self-dependence, and had for his slogan, "The man of any country who pretends that foreign domination is for his good is either a knave or a fool." He believes that the English are in India for material gain. He strongly advocates home rule for India, and is a frank denouncer of the English regime as having economically drained India so that today it is a country of famine and plague, which during the last 25 years has whitened the land with the bleached bones of 25,000,000 dead Hindus.

Mr. Rai has traveled extensively, and in 1906 made a tour to America. He is in no sense an anarchist. Mr.

Rai gained such power and became so formidable in India that last year he was kidnapped from his home in Lahore, Punjab, spirited across the continent in a special train and smuggled into Rangoon, the capital of Burma, where he was confined in a fortress as a state prisoner. This only tended to increase his popularity among the masses, who looked upon him as a martyr and almost worshiped him. On the 5th of last November Mr. Rai was released and quietly transported to his native home, after being incarcerated a little over six months.

The British war office is thoroughly alive to the situation. Orders have been issued to the officer of the auxiliary forces throughout Great Britain, asking that the state whether mobilization is impossible.

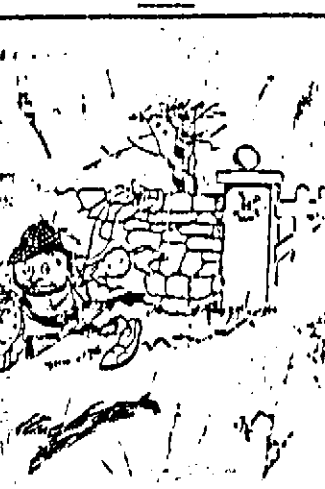

These forces are instructed to be prepared to move immediately on receipt of telegraphic orders. They must keep their adjutants informed of their movements and must not go beyond the reach of telegrams.

EVANGELISTS COMING TO CARGILL CHURCH

Portland and Trenton Newspapers Have Words of High Praise For Rev. H. C. Hart and A. S. Magann.

Committees are being appointed and preparations preliminary to the appearance here at the Cargill St. E. church the last of this month of the noted evangelists, Rev. Herbert C. Hart and A. S. Magann, are rapidly going forward. All arrangements are being made in anticipation of an effective old-fashioned revival. Concerning the work of these men, one of the Portland, Oregon, newspapers makes the following interesting statement: "The greatest revival in the history of Tacoma has reached its end. The results of five weeks of meetings, with 71 special services, led by Hart and Magann have justified the great hopes felt at the beginning. Fully 65,000 people have attended the meetings, and 1245 have made professions of a definite work of grace. In addition to these, many have been converted in the regular services of the churches and some privately. Hundreds of them are coming into our churches." The Trenton Evening Times says: "They used no spectacular methods, are not in the least sensational, but win by tremendous earnestness and a straightforward preaching of the gospel. The Rev. Mr. Hart is noted as a leader of interdenominational evangelism. He displays exceptional tact as an organizer. His preaching is clear and spiritual, enforced with homely and pertinent illustration, and wins interested attention. He aims at thorough work without fanaticism. Mr. Magann has a sweet, pleading voice, and sings the gospel very effectively. His chorister work is most successful."

The strongest statement of the truth in advertising is the best "copy." The stronger an exaggeration is made, the weaker it is.

CITY WRAPPED IN MOURNING

As Result of Terrible

Search for Babies.

Cleveland, O., Mar. 5.—Pinned in narrow hallways, jammed up against doors that only opened inward, 170 children in the suburb of North Collinwood Wednesday were killed by fire, by smoke, and beneath the grinding heels of their panic-stricken playmates.

The awful tragedy occurred in the public school of North Collinwood, ten miles east of this city. One hundred and sixty-five corpses were in the morgue at Collinwood Thursday, six children were unaccounted for, and all the hospitals and houses for two miles around contained numbers of children, some fatally, and many less seriously injured. All of the victims were between the ages of six and fifteen years. The school contained between 310 and 325 pupils, and of this entire number only about 80 are known to have left the building unhurt. It will be several days before the exact number of killed is known, as the ruins may still contain other bodies, and the list of fatalities may be increased by a number of deaths among the children who are now in hospitals.

Thursday there were 166 bodies in the morgue of which 108 had been identified. At least 13 children were missing.

Word was received in Cleveland Thursday that Gov. Andrew L. Harris had ordered the state officers to make a prompt and searching investigation into the cause of the Collinwood fire. He also directed that the examination extend to public schools generally. The Collinwood council Wednesday night began an investigation.

Too Many Pupils in School.

The schoolhouse was of brick, two stories and an attic in height. The number of pupils was more than normally large, and the smaller children had been placed in the upper part of the building. There was but one fire escape, and that was in the rear of the building. There were two stairways, one leading to a door in front, and the other to a door in the rear. Both of these doors opened inward, and it is claimed the rear door was locked as well. When the flames were discovered the teachers, who throughout seem to have acted with courage and self-possession, and to have struggled heroically for the safety of their pupils, marshaled the little ones into column for the "fire drill," which they had often practiced. Unfortunately the line of march in this exercise had always led to the front door and the children had not been trained to seek any other exit. The fire Wednesday came from a furnace situated directly under this part of the building. When the children reached the foot of the stairs they found the flames close upon them, and so swift a rush was made for the door that in an instant a tightly-packed mass was against it.

Statements Fail to Agree.

Unconfirmed statements were made Thursday as to the cause of the fire and also that the doors of the building had been locked at the front entrance, while but one door of the rear entry was unfastened. The janitor, Fritz Horter, himself bereaved of three children, says the doors were open, according to custom. At any rate the congestion of fleeing children in the hallway below effectively barred the way, and the little ones went to their death totally unable to evade the flames. Within three hours after the start of the fire it had burned itself out, and the work of recovering the bodies proceeded. The village fire department had only two engines, and neither, upon arrival after the alarm was given, was at all effective in stemming the flames. The school was a two-story and attic brick building constructed about six years ago. It was overcrowded with pupils and it was found necessary to utilize the attic for those of the ages between six and eight. Nearly all the children were killed in the mass at the first floor door which finally was opened by men from the Lake Shore railway shops who hurried to the scene.

Three Hundred in School.

A wall of fire formed across it and most of the children already were dead by the time the doors were swung open. Approximately 200 children attended the school, which had nine rooms. Janitor Horter could remember little of what happened after the fire started. "I was sweeping in the basement," he said, "when I looked up and saw a wisp of smoke curling out from beneath the front stairway. I ran to the fire alarm and

I cannot remember what happened next, except that I saw the flames shooting all about and the little children running down through them screaming. Some fell at the rear entrance and others stumbled over them. I saw my little Helen among them. I tried to pull her out, but the flames drove me back. I had to leave my little child to die. Horter was badly burned about the head. Miss Catherine Wedder, one of the nine teachers in the school, lost her life in a vain effort to marshal the pupils of her class and lead them to safety. She died in the crush at the rear door.

Bodies Are Taken Out.

The fire had swept away nearly all resemblance to human features in the majority of instances. Distracted parents soon began to gather and the work of identification of the blackened and mangled corpses began. The gruesome task of taking out the blackened torsos and bits of human remains was one of horror. A line of rescuers was formed, backed by half a dozen ambulances. As the bodies were untangled from the debris they were passed along to the stretchers and thence loaded in the ambulances. Mercifully covered with blankets, the pitiful sights were veiled from the crowd of curious that stretched about the entrance to the structure. As fast as a load was obtained it was driven away to an improvised morgue to be succeeded by another within a short time. The sights of the human channel house caused the men diving into the mass of burned flesh to hesitate, but the work had to be done and done quickly, so their feelings had to be smothered for the time being as they tenderly handled all that was mortal of the little tots.

Bodies Numbered at the Morgue.

Fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters passed up and down the lines formed of 170 corpses. To facilitate identification the bodies were numbered as they were received at the morgue. The first identification was made by the mother of Nola and Tommy Thompson, aged six and nine years respectively. The heads and arms had been burned from both bodies, but the mother recognized the shoes on their feet. And so the heartbreaking work went on accompanied now and then by a piercing shriek or plaintive moan as a loved one was recognized by clothing or token, such as ring or necklace. About the burned schoolhouse there are but few residences. In one of these Mrs. Clark Spring lived. Her little boy, Alvon, aged seven, was a pupil in the second grade. When the fire started the mother ran over to the school and arrived when the first floor was a mass of flames. At a window on that floor she saw the face of her boy. He recognized her and pleaded for help. Rushing across the street Mrs. Spring secured a stepladder and placed it against the window. Climbing up she reached for her boy. She caught him by the hair. It burned off in her hands and the lad fell back into the flames. Desolation unspeakable hangs over the vicinity of the school and the whole village of Collinwood. The school board met in special session at the temporary morgue into Wednesday afternoon to discuss the calamity, while the coroner prepared to hold an inquest to determine the cause and place the responsibility for the fire.

EX-TREASURER UNDER ARREST.

Former Michigan Official, F. P. Glazier, Served with Warrant.

Chelsea, Mich., Mar. 5.—Former State Treasurer Frank P. Glazier was Thursday technically under arrest at his residence here. An indictment against him was found by the grand jury sitting at Mason, Mich., and Sheriff Cline of Ingham county served the warrant on Mr. Glazier Wednesday at his house where he has been under the care of physicians. Mr. Glazier's failure involved the closing of the Chelsea Savings bank of Chelsea, Mich., in which, as state treasurer, he had deposited more than $600,000 of state funds.

RUSS NAVAL SECRETS SOLD?

Explanation of Prevailing Rumor in St. Petersburg Asked.

St. Petersburg, Mar. 5.—An interpretation was introduced in the duma Wednesday by conservatives demanding explanations from Admiral Dikoff, minister of marine, of the charges current in navy circles that Russian naval secrets had been communicated to Vickers' Sons & Maxims, the English shipbuilders, in connection with the construction of the new Russian cruiser Rurik by this firm and that these secrets were thereby rendered available to other nations. It is alleged that the armor, guns and shell manufactured by Vickers' Sons & Maxims were unsatisfactory.

Founder of Great Banking House.

August Belmont, father of the present banker, came to this country in 1837 as agent of the Rothschilds, the great European bankers. He was born in Rhineish Prussia, in 1816, and received his business training in the Rothschild banking house at Frankfurt. He became prominent in this country politically as well as financially, and was rated as a man of originality, of strong prejudices and stubborn independence of thought and action.

The Cantaloupe.

The cantaloupe derives its name from the papal palace Cantalupo, in Ancona, long famous for its melons. The melons which grow wild in some southern countries lack the luscious flavor of the cultivated melon.

Wrinkles.

Many wrinkles are caused by contortions of the face—in talking, or even when it is supposed to be in repose. Not one woman in a hundred is without some more or less disagreeable facial twittings. If you doubt this try keeping your eyes open the next time you go downtown in the street car. Cultivate repose of manner.

What Will You Answer

when the employer asks, "What can you do?" Will it be the answer of the trained man or will it be the usual "I can do most anything?"

It isn't the fault of the times that men are unemployed. Employees find it hard to get competent workers. Luck or wishing for promotion won't advance you. Ambition is of no use unless you add determination to "get there" with it.

Go where you will you will find men in high positions who have risen solely through home study. Such men always advance, they can't be kept back.

Now is your time to decide how much you are going to advance within the next year.

The I. C. S. can prepare you for that position you have been wishing. For 18 years they have been preparing men and women for higher salaries and can do the same for you.

Write them a card TODAY and let them show you how easy you can advance yourself.

Are You Going to Purchase a Piano This Season?

If so, be sure and see the famous Newman Bros. Piano, manufactured in Chicago, Ill. This line of pianos excelled by none for fine finish, light action, even scale, pure tone, and they are sure to please—that is, if you are looking for a good piano. Here is a testimonial right at home that speaks for itself and signed by the purchaser.

H. F. Nott, Janesville, Wis.

I am delighted because I purchased a Newman Bros. piano from you last April. After trying two other prominent pianos before purchasing the Newman I found that neither of them possessed such fine quality of tone. I think the Newman Bros. piano cannot be excelled for tone and action, and is remarkable for standing in tone. Some of my friends, who are noted musicians, who have tried my piano, speak of it in the highest terms for its beautiful tone and fine action.

JANESVILLE ON
NEW BELT LINE

PROJECT WAS LAUNCHED AT SPRINGFIELD YESTERDAY.

250 MILE OUTER SYSTEM

For Metropolis is Contemplated in Plans of the Newly Organized Chicago, Milwaukee & Gary Ry. Co. Of direct interest to Janesville, because this city is to be included in the system, is the new and positive movement which has just been launched to provide Chicago with a complete 250 mile of main line, which is being discussed in railroad circles of the metropolis today. The discussion has been awakened by the incorporation at Springfield, Ill., yesterday of the Chicago, Milwaukee & Gary Railroad Co. with a capital stock of $10,000,000. The incorporators and first board of directors are Hallock W. Seaman, Benjamin H. Harris, William P. McSwiney, Frank H. Clark, and James Wolfe. Of this enterprise, the name of Mr. Seaman is familiar to local people, owing to his connection with the projects of the Illinois, Iowa & Minnesota line which is one of the factors in the new merger. Under its old charter the I. & M. was not allowed to acquire other lines. The new one grants broader powers and it is expected that the consolidation and plans for the extension will be completed as soon as possible.

When completed, the belt will extend from Milwaukee on the north, by way of Janesville and Beloit, to Rockford on the west; Monmouth, Ill., on the south; and Gary, Indiana, on the east. About 125 miles of the system are already in operation between Rockford and Monmouth and the construction of the forty-two miles between Monmouth and Gary will begin at once. With one or two minor exceptions the new belt will reach all of the large towns in the vicinity of Chicago which are producing carload freight. It will also cross every railroad entering Chicago and will be in position to create and foster many factoring towns along its lines in Illinois and lower Wisconsin.

Wisconsin in Trackage 100 Miles. The principal manufacturing towns which are now reached are Rockford, DeKalb, Aurora, Joliet, Peotone and Monmouth, Gary, Lowell, Crown Point, Beloit and Janesville will be added when the new extensions are constructed. The company will acquire the Illinois, Iowa & Minnesota, Indiana & Gary road and the Milwaukee, Rockford & Eastern. The stretch to be constructed between Rockford and Milwaukee by the way of Janesville and Beloit is 100 miles. When completed the road will have two into central, Gary and Milwaukee, and will be in position to supply coal to Gary and many other cities.

CARRIE JACOBS BOND
GOING TO HONOLULU

For Some Reclaim But Has Had to Postpone Trip to Japan—is at Present in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Carrie Jacobs Bond is at present in Los Angeles, Cal., resting after a long concert trip and recovering from a severe illness. On account of her ill health the trip to Japan which she had in prospect has been postponed until April or May. She will, however, go to Honolulu in the near future, slinking there in one or two outfits. Her recent song-songs "The Lullaby" is sung now on all of her concert programs here at the great artist, Mrs. Schumann-Lohke, at whose country try home Mrs. Bond was a guest last autumn. A song cycle which she recently composed for David Isham has elicited the following appreciative letter:

"My Dear Mrs. Bond: Certainly I will introduce your songs, and accept with pleasure the dedication of the 'song cycle.' You indeed have the rare gift of sympathy and I am reminded of what my first master said to me once: 'It's easy enough to write difficult music; the hard thing is to get at folk with simplicity nowadays, and that is what you do, and I think you might just quote me as saying those words. With best wishes, yours truly, DAVID ISHAM.'

Are Your Hens Laying?

If not, it's your fault. If there ever was a time when they should be fed properly and liberally, it's right now. Remember, they can't find the elements of egg production at this season of the year. You must furnish them with it—they will do the rest.

Poultry at this season need a liberal daily feed of a variety of grains. Our Globe Feed fills the bill exactly.

Furthermore, they need Beef Scrap, a meat product that takes the place of bugs, worms, etc., they gather in summer time.

They also need Alfalfa meal which is a fine substitute for green grass.

Remember, we carry the largest and most complete assortment of Poultry Feeds and Supplies in Southern Wisconsin.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, Thursday, March 5, 1868.—There will be a special meeting of Washington Engine Company No. 3, Friday evening, March 6th, at 7:30 o'clock, by order of the foreman.

P. H. INMAN, Secy.

What is it.—Can the "oldest inhabitant" or any other man give any information in respect to the weather phenomenon which has existed this afternoon? A strange fog has been falling from the clouds, but investigation will be necessary to decide upon its character.

A Profitable Crop.—Mr. Andrew Barclay, Jr., of the town of Harmony, raised last season on twenty-five acres of ground, 1,350 bushels of barley. He hauled two loads of it into the city today, and sold it for $2.15 per bushel. At the same rate his crop would yield him over one hundred dollars per acre—or $2,362.50 from the twenty-five acres. This is certainly a good yield and a very large price; who can make a better show-out?

Police Court.—Ann Mullen was brought before the court, charged with assault and battery on a man named Cleveland, but the examination did not sustain the charge and she was acquitted.

One Ellen Brown, who has not hitherto borne a spotless reputation, was brought up for jury duty. The testimony in the case went to substantiate the fact that Ellen had no clear perception of the ownership of property. Justice Hudson prescribed 30 days at hard labor for her malady.

But the liveliest case was one in which Judge Lynch brought a suit against James Lee to recover a mortgage. Judge Lynch for the appellant and Wickham for the respondent. If our shorthand reporter on the spot had been good in word and illustration, he might have done the subject justice, but as he was not master of that accomplishment, it is useless to attempt to do justice to the subject.

The Senate, today at one o'clock, proceeded to the consideration of the impeachment of President.

Your Oven Isn't Hot

A fierce heat is required to make beans digestible; you can't apply it

It is simply impossible to bake beans at home, and bake them as they should be baked. You lack the facilities.

Home-baked beans are heavy and hard to digest, because of insufficient heat. You fail to break down their fibre.

Let us bake for you. We bake in live steam, and our ovens are heated to 245 degrees. The result is, our beans are digestible.

That nutty flavor and that sparkling zest are found in Van Camp's alone

The nutty flavor comes from using only the plumpest, ripest beans. It is also due to baking without bursting.

The plump tang comes from vine-ripened tomatoes. Our sauce costs us five times what some sauce is sold for.

The delicious blend comes from baking the beans, the tomato sauce and the pork for 90 minutes together.

Van Camp's pork and beans
baked with tomato sauce

Baking beans at home is a bother. It takes too much time. That is why you don't serve them frequently.

Van Camp's are always ready. Put the can in hot water, then open, and you have a delicious meal steaming hot.

You will eat more beans when you know Van Camp's. First, because they're convenient. Second, because they're so good.

Beans are 84 per cent nutriment; yet
see how many you get for ten cents

Beans and meat have about the same food value, but look at the difference in cost. Suppose your people ate beans once a day—think what you would save.

Why not tempt them with beans which are as good as beans can be? Then note how soon they ask for more.

They will like Van Camp's better than meat.

10, 15 and 20¢ per can.

Early Rising.
As a rule, long-lived persons have been early risers, because they have been good sleepers. By "good sleep"
is meant sleep that is sweet and sound,
without dreaming; the body recuperates wholly. Those who love to rise early generally are of this sort. They have strong will and good health to begin with.

FINAL SESSION PICKS TAFT
LAST KANSAS G. O. P. CONVEN-TION HELD AT TOPEKA.

Meeting Indorses Taft—Hereafter Primary Elections Are to Choose Candidates.

Topeka, Kan., Mar. 5.—Kansas Republicans in state convention here Wednesday elected four delegates at large to the Chicago convention. Instructed to vote for the nomination of Secretary W. H. Taft for president.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted and much enthusiasm: The Republicans of Kansas are of one mind in the choice of candidate of the party for president of the United States. The proved statesmanship, executive ability and magnificent manhood of our candidate fit him for the office and command the approval and confidence of the people;
therefore, "We instruct the delegates to the national convention to vote on every preliminary and final vote and on every ballot for the nomination of W. H. Taft." The resolutions indorse
the administration of President Roosevelt and the Kansas delegation in congress.

Wednesday's convention probably will be the last state convention to be held in Kansas. Hereafter candidates are to be chosen by primaries.

Columbus, O., Mar. 5.—In the Ohio Republican convention Wednesday the following ticket was selected: Gov-land; Arthur L. Vorys, Lancaster; An-

SCORES AMERICAN MILK.
Report Asked by Roosevelt Is Given
Out by Dr. Wyman.

Washington, Mar. 5.—Surgeon General Walter Wyman of the public health service submitted to Secretary Cortelyou Wednesday a "report" on milk in its relation to public health.
The report is the result of an investigation ordered by President Roosevelt and conducted by federal experts.
It is one of the most thorough studies
of the milk problem yet made. Dr.
Wyman cites the fact that samples of market milk in New York showed 35, 200,000 bacteria to the cubic centimeter; London, 31,883,000; Washington, 22,134,000. He calls attention to the evidence presented in the report as proof that 600 epidemics of typhoid fever, scarlet fever and diphtheria were caused by infected milk. He also refers to the evidence adduced that 11 per cent. of the samples of Washington milk contained tubercle germs.

Beloit, Wis., Given $50,000.
Beloit, Wis., Mar. 5.—At the close

$50,000 from Andrew Carnegie to remains to be raised.

Efficient store illumination is the greatest factor for proper interior display.

No matter how meritorious a merchant's goods may be, they labor under a serious disadvantage if the store lighting is faulty.

Electric Light possesses the ability to show up your goods just as they are—true to color, shades and texture. And this means that merchants are selling goods in a light that spells more trade and more dollars to them.

Is your store illuminated with Electricity? If not,

ON THE RESULTS

LETTERS TO MAYOR HEDDLES
FROM STATE AUTHORITIES.

WAS IT UNPROFESSIONAL?

Are Indignant Over the Way in Which Their Analysis Was Treated in Case of Rabies.

Mar. 4, 1908.

To the Mayor of the City of Janesville.

Dear Sir:

On February 21, 1908, at eleven a.
m., the State Hygienic Laboratory received from the health officer of your city, Dr. W. L. Merritt, three dogs heads with the following history:

Dog No. 1, "This dog has been acting very queer. About two weeks ago he was bitten by a dog which was supposed to be rabid. He has since bitten two people and a cow and made several attempts to bite others. Make careful examination and advise me
as soon as possible."

W. D. Merritt,
Health Officer.

Dogs No. 2 and No. 3, "Bitten by
No. 1. Acts queerly, made several attempts to bite people."

W. D. Merritt.

When examined, Dog No. 1 showed scars on side of cheek where it had evidently been bitten by some animal.
No external signs of bites were noted on dogs numbers 2 and 3. Dog No. 2 was shot in the head and one lobe of brain blown out. The brains were all removed immediately upon receipt. That of dog No. 1 was bloody and congested, that of No. 2 was congested from shot wounds and No. 3
was quite normal.

Smear preparations were made immediately from dog No. 1, which revealed the presence of "Negri bodies," that are now generally accepted as characteristic of hydrophobia. In view of the fact that an early diagnosis as possible was wanted, because of the supposed biting of human beings, a report was immediately mailed to Dr. Merritt that dog No.
1 showed positive rabies.

The method of procedure in the laboratory is:

(1) to make these smear preparations which can be done quite quickly and render a tentative report on this.

(2) to follow these up with sections of the brain imbedded in paraffin, cut, stained and examined. This process takes a couple of days and is the basis of the final report.

These smears were examined by assistants, Dr. Fisher and Smith, also by Dr. M. P. Ravenel, the head of the department of bacteriology, who has been in connection with his work in Pennsylvania, a larger experience in the matter of rabies than almost any other scientific man in the country.

The judgment of each was that the case was positive rabies and on that basis the judgment of the report as related in your paper of March 3d was sent. The imbedded sections were then prepared, Assistant Smith working all night to finish his work so as to get a final diagnosis, as we supposed human life was at stake.
These sections confirmed the preliminary diagnosis and showed undoubted rabies in dog No. 1.

Dr. Merritt called me up by telephone on the 22d of February and wanted to know if the case was really positive. At that time he told me that the case was a "put up job,"
and that the city officials thought that the laboratory was giving a diagnosis on ethical rather than disinterested findings, that they did this to test the accuracy of the work of the laboratory.

You may imagine my surprise to find that a city health official would be a party to such disreputable and unprofessional conduct, which according to the code of medical ethics and the statutes (see chapter 422, laws of 1896) would be sufficient on conviction to cause withdrawal of his license. To learn later that he was instigated by other officials of the city of Janesville showed that this method of testing the accuracy of the work of the hygienic laboratory revealed the sanction of the city officials.

The laboratory has had since January 1st of this year, a half dozen or more cases of dogs' heads sent in for examination by Doctors Gish-son, Field, your city attorney, and your present health officer. In each instance reported upon so far positive findings of the "Negri bodies" were made. The history accompanying some of these cases (letter of Dr.
Field of January 20th) states that "the suspected animal had attacked every dog that he saw and during the day had bitten probably twenty other dogs."

Under these circumstances there is no question but that rabies is epidemic in your city. Your officials unfortunately selected, for their so-called
"test case," an untried tramp dog, concerning which there is unquestioned evidence that he had been bitten by some other animal. At the time of killing, this animal might not have shown any playful or sane habits,
but in all probability sufficient time for the period of incubation had not elapsed to produce an actual diseased condition. The saliva of a dog is known to be virulent in some cases
at least four days before appearance of symptoms. However, the brain tissue would show the characteristic microscopic appearance before the disease actually appeared.

The results of the examination of dogs No. 2 and No. 3 (falsely reported to have been bitten by dog No. 1)
showed no "Negri bodies."

In the fifteen years' experience in this work this is the first time, to my knowledge, that city officials have played with the laboratory in this way. The university keeps a body of supposedly trustworthy analysts to aid
the state board of health in its work in fighting contagious and communicable diseases. These men are not doing this work for amusement, but with the serious purpose of adding to the local health officials to diagnose correctly such contagious diseases as are adapted to laboratory methods.

The findings of this laboratory are not based upon the judgment or opinion of any individual, but upon whether specific evidence is obtained as to the presence or absence of disease-producing organisms. Mistakes doubtless will arise, but errors of negative diagnosis are much more likely to occur than in positive findings. Full history of the case are asked for so that the aid of the laboratory may be made as helpful as possible by the way of advice. The health official of the city of Janesville evidently does not attach much value to this work and as there are plenty of calls for labors of this sort by those who are anxious for such help as the laboratory is desirous of giving gratuitously, it will doubtless be desirable for your diagnostic work of such character to be performed elsewhere.

I regret the necessity of presenting this report to you through the medium of your local press, but inasmuch as the reports of the laboratory on these cases have been given to the public through this medium, we have thought it advisable to place the full facts before the public and permit them to draw their own conclusions.

Yours respectfully,
H. L. RUSSELL,
Director.

LAW SUIT WAS WON

BY THE HIRED MAN

William Lavozz Awarded Verdict of $138 Against Wm. Drafaht—Guardianship of J. A. Matthews.

May Be Raised.

Late yesterday afternoon the jury trying the action of William Lavozz vs. William Drafaht concluded the six hours of deliberation with a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $138.
Lavozz was employed at Drafaht's farm in the town of Center, leaving at the expiration of five months. The defendant in the action claimed that the hired man was under agreement to remain with him nine months and not only refused to pay the wages which Lavozz claimed but entered a large counterclaim for damages alleged to have been sustained by reason of Lavozz's failure to live up to his alleged contract, when the latter brought action in the courts. In Justice Tallman's court the plaintiff received judgment for a sum within a dollar or two of the amount allowed by the jury.

Matthews Guardianship Case.

Judge Graham has refused to dismiss the petition of James A. Matthews of Beloit to have the guardianship established over him in 1904 raised and his property transferred back to him. The same decision was given by Judge Sale in county court and Atty. E. D. McGowan, who appeared from this decision, may carry the matter to the supreme court. Nolan, Adams & Reeder, who represent Matthews, contemplate the commencement of a general suit against all their clients' children for "damages wrought to their father by alleged interference with a man competent to handle his affairs. The petition was made in Matthews' name and one of the points raised by Atty. McGowan was that the petitioner having been adjudged incompetent, his petition was not entitled to consideration by the courts.

Baldwin vs. R. & L.

The trial of the case of Otto C.
Baldwin vs. the Rockford & Interurban Ry. Co. is in progress before a jury in circuit court today. The plaintiff, who resides in La Crosse, was put off an interurban car in the country, five miles from Rockford, at half-past nine o'clock one evening last October, because, as it was alleged,
he had no ticket and would not pay his fare. Mr. Baldwin claimed to have purchased a ticket, but was unable to find it when the conductor approached him. He alleges that he thereupon offered to pay his fare, but was not permitted to remain on the car. His suit is for $2,000 damages.

NEWS FROM NEAR-BY NEIGHBORS

CLINTON

Clinton, March 4.—Harold Bruce was able to be out on Saturday. It may have been that his long-expected party helped in the way of a tonic to give him sufficient strength for the occasion.

The "six weeks in March" started in with a very severe rain, sleet and ice storm Friday morning. The trees, roads and walks were completely covered, but fortunately the mercury was not low.

Dr. Griswold is still very sick. Mr. Hall of Heloit left the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. A. G. Shauling is some better. Mr. W. and Mrs. Cheever expect to start for Menomonee next Monday.

Mrs. Elva Parks arrived Monday to begin her season's work for Cheever & Scott.

The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church is to meet with Mrs. Cookley on Thursday afternoon.

On Friday afternoon the Missionary society of the M. E. church is to meet with Mrs. Stoney.

Wednesday the ladies of the M. E. society are to put in a full day's work at the home of Mrs. Monroe.

Y. M. C. A. debate Tuesday evening.

There could not be finer sleighing than that of Sunday, there being a solid coating of ice everywhere.

The concert to be given by the chorus is to come off on the evening of March 6th. There will be several fine solos by singers from out of town.

It is said that the contestants for the coming Y. M. C. A. debate are getting busy, and that the affair is likely to be the most interesting number of the fine course which has been given.

Owing to his work in Michigan, Evangelist Knight did not arrive for last Sunday, but is to be here to begin a series of special meetings at the Baptist church on Sunday evening next.

A large number of our people attended the midwinter fair held at Sharon on Friday and report a very delightful time and fine entertainment.

Miss Berrie Hamilton, one of our high school students, gave a party on Saturday evening in commemoration of her third birthday anniversary, which was largely attended by the young people, all of whom report a most highly enjoyable occasion.

J. F. Koumeier has returned from Iowa, where he and Mr. Monroe purchased a car of horses.

The Baptist society is thoroughly advertising the series of special meetings to begin on Sunday evening next, under the supervision of Evangelist E. C. Knight and wife of New York state. Every effort possible will be made to the end that the results be as desirable as possible. Every body is cordially invited to attend.

Beginning with Monday night, Zan Zan, the hypnotist, has given three evening entertainments here, but to smaller houses than would make them profitable. Tuesday afternoon he had the additional attraction of a sleeping lady in a store window, who was awakened that evening at the performance.

During the past season the Y. M. C. A. has had an exceptionally fine course of entertainments, well worth the price of a membership in the association, to say nothing of the many other advantages of belonging. The program included, and as was predicted, and the least interesting of these was the debate held at the Congregational church on Tuesday evening, which was attended by a well-filled house. The subject discussed was, "Resolved, That another term for President Roosevelt would not be for the best interests of the country." The affirmative being taken by A. E. Matheson and S. M. Smith, prominent attorneys of Janesville, and the negative by Rev. Clyde McGee and Prof. P. J. Lowth of this place. In this community the negative had the advantage of the sympathies of a large proportion of the audience, but it is no more than fair to state that they certainly, both in lines of argument and in style of presentation, held their own at least. No judges were appointed and no vote taken.

Next Monday evening the 20th Century club is to meet with Mrs. F. R. Henson, No. 31 Highland Park avenue, subject—"The Netherlands."

Committee in charge—Mrs. A. G. Shauling, Mrs. H. N. Cronkite, Miss Beulah Shepard and Mrs. Eda Scott. A large attendance is assured.

For the first two weeks of February the Clinton creamery distributed over $2,100 among its patrons.

The thaw after the recent ice storm has demonstrated one fact very thoroughly, which is that many, in fact most of the cement walks, have been built too low and with far too little provision for proper drainage, as nearly all of the water from the yards and in some cases the flow from long distances has to run over the walks, keeping them wet and in a few cases practically impassable. In the future it would be advisable to keep this subject in mind, when constructing new walks and guard against future trouble in this respect.

Our clothing store has suddenly disappeared.

The Methodist ladies put in a full day's work at the home of Mrs. Monroe on Wednesday.

Much of the ice disappeared last Wednesday, the temperature being quite like spring.

The people of Menomonee promise to give all who attend the meeting of the Press association next Tuesday and Wednesday a very pleasant time. The wedding was expected, but last week did not seem to come off.

Fort Atkinson, March 4.—Emil Nordlund had the misfortune to injure his finger at the Kent Manufacturing company's plant last week, so badly that he was taken to Dr. Frank M. Brewer's hospital on South Third street, where it was found necessary to amputate a portion of the member.

Mrs. Kranz, who was operated on at Dr. F. M. Brewer's hospital, is convalescent, and nearly ready to return home.

Mrs. Martha Crabe, the invalid mother of G. G. Pritchard, came from Milwaukee the forepart of the week, and was placed in Dr. F. M. Brewer's hospital, while Mr. Pritchard is moving to the James Pritchard farm, south of town.

Mrs. Stephen Ward, who has been ill for some time, is obliged to undergo an operation. She was taken to Dr. F. M. Brewer's hospital, and will be operated on Friday morning.

Clifford McMillan was taken ill at Madison and is home for a few days.

The W. D. Board company has let the contract for the mason work on their new building, on Milwaukee avenue, to John Becker. The Fort Atkinson Concrete Stone company will furnish the cement blocks. The construction of the building, which will cover an entire block, will commence early in the spring.

The Whitewater Normal basketball team played against the high school team at the Armory last Friday evening. The game ended with a score of 27 to 14 in favor of Fort Atkinson. There was very good team work in the last half.

A flagman has been placed at the North-Western railroad crossing at South Fifth street. The crossing has long been a dangerous place for the people of the city.

The public schools of the city will close Friday, March 27th, for a week's vacation.

CONGRESSMAN WILLIAM J. CARY

Washington, D. C., March 5.—Congressman William J. Cary of Wisconsin has his hammer out and is knocking the popular branch of Congress in a most decided manner. In an interview yesterday he said:

"I intend to send out a circular to put the people wise, and I propose to state in it that if the constituents of congressmen know how their representatives were acting down here they would be astounded. I shall say in substance:

"I find that affairs in Washington are just about as described during the campaign. The ideals of American citizenship have been abandoned here in congress. They have not been forgotten, because at every little dinner, whether public or private, you will hear the speakers of the occasion orate in most eloquent phrases about the duties of congressmen and senators, but the next day when the time to vote comes to arrive you find that the sentiments expressed in the glowing speeches of the night before are not borne out by their votes."

"In other words, it appears that the spirit of 1776 must be aroused among the common people if we can hope to get this congress to pass any legislation for the people. Instead of representing the people, some of the congressmen simply misrepresent them and make every effort to block any bill introduced for the benefit of the people."

"I speak conservatively in saying this and voice the utterances of about 250 congressmen who are in a minority, but who are doing their best to enact legislation for the good of the country. Congress is supposed to express the will of the people. This congress does not. There appears to be no hope that it will."

"I believe that some congressmen are trying to bottle up legislation in committee," said Mr. Cary in continuation. "by not allowing it to come out of consideration. This legislation is in the interest of the people."

"There is no doubt in my mind that the lobbyists are very busy down here and that a great many congressmen, instead of representing the people are misrepresenting them. They have a thousand ways to block the efforts of congressmen who are trying to do what is right."

Congressman Cary is a self-made man. He is 47 years old and a staunch Republican. He received a primary education in the public schools, and at the age of 13 was left an orphan with five younger children. He began work as messenger boy, the younger children being placed in an orphan asylum; at 18 he was a telegraph operator and at 19 took the younger children from the asylum and gave them a home.

World's Largest Book.

There lies in the British museum the largest book yet printed, a colossal atlas of engraved ancient Dutch maps. It takes three men to move it from the giant bookcase in which it is stored in the library of the museum. It is bound in leather, magnificently decorated and is fastened with clasps of solid silver, richly gilt. It is nearly seven feet high and weighs 800 pounds and was presented to King Charles II, before he left Holland in the year 1660.

"The time to quit advertising is when you want to quit business," says an exchange.

SENATOR PROCTOR OF VERMONT DIES

NEW ENGLAND TOGA-WEARER CALLED AT CAPITAL.

UPPER BRANCH SUSPENDS

As Mark of Respect to Dead Legislator Session Takes Vacation, Funeral Committee Being Appointed.

Washington, Mar. 5.—United States Senator Redfield Proctor of Vermont died at his apartments at the Champlain here Wednesday afternoon after a short illness following an attack of grippe.

The senator's son, Gov. Fletcher Proctor of Vermont, who was summoned to the city, was at the bedside when the senator passed away. Senator Proctor was 77 years old.

The senator had been ill and confined to his room at the Champlain apartment in this city for about a week. His ailment was diagnosed as the grippe, which later developed into plourish with pneumonia complications which affected the heart and which, in his enfeebled condition, proved too much for his powers of resistance. Besides his son, Gov. Proctor, the governor's wife and several intimate friends, were at the bedside when death occurred. The senator's body will be taken to the old home in Proctorville, Vt.

Official Announcement Made.

While definite funeral arrangements have not been announced, Senator Proctor's body will be sent Thursday evening to Proctor, Vt., for interment on Friday. When the two houses of congress met Thursday official announcement was made of Senator Proctor's death and adjournment was taken as a mark of respect.

The vice-president and the speaker of the house of representatives appointed committees to accompany the body to Vermont.

Home Town Hears News.

Proctor, Vt., Mar. 5.—News of Senator Proctor's death in Washington was received in this town, where the senator resided, by telephone from Boston Wednesday and called forth many expressions of regret. Senator Proctor was formerly head of the most extensive marble interests in the country. He was also interested in timber lands and the development of water power in Canada. His death will in no way affect the marble industry at Proctor for he had not been active in the management of the works for years. The oversight of them devolved on his son, Gov. Proctor, who is president of the Vermont Marble company. The Proctor hospital was a gift of the senator and last year he built for the state of Vermont a costly sanitarium at Pittsford for the treatment of tuberculous sufferers.

Dailey Out of Race.

Topeka, Kan., Mar. 5.—William J. Dailey, former governor, Wednesday announced his withdrawal from the race for the Republican nomination for governor.

Buy It in Janesville.

Matches used by the civilized world in one year, if placed side by side and end to end, would form a solid layer along the New York Paris automobile race route 20 feet wide.

The world has "money to burn" literally, for it is estimated that the civilized nations of the world strike 3,000,000 matches every minute, yearly one-half of these are struck in America, for the Americans use the enormous total of 700,000,000 matches a year. Figuring these at a cost of 1 cent per hundred the total amount expended on matches in America alone reaches $7,000,000,000. And the world spends annually $15,000,000,000 for this necessity which our generation uses with little waste. These figures are so large that their magnitude can only be grasped by comparison.

The New York-Paris automobile race now under way, contemplates covering 22,000 miles altogether by land and water. The number of matches used by the world in a single year, if placed end to end, would reach from New York to Paris along this circuitous route—2,830 times. Figuring that nine matches placed side by side cover one inch in width, or 108 matches to the foot in width, these matches would form a solid layer if placed side by side and end to end, along the entire route, 26 feet wide. Think of it, a solid layer of matches about one-half the width of an ordinary street from New York to Paris!

Again, if it were possible to lay these matches end to end to the moon and back the entire circuit would be covered 135 times, or would form a ribbon of matches over a foot wide to the moon and back.

A good idea of the amount of money expended on matches is obtained by comparison with the cost of the Panama canal. Outside estimates on the cost to the United States of the Panama canal place it at $250,000,000. The original estimate was only $120,000,000, but supposing it cost $250,000,000, the money expended on matches in one year would build 60 Panama canals.

Hundreds of factories over the country are engaged in this industry, about which the general public knows so little. Some of the plants are very large, one on the Pacific coast covering 210 acres, with 32 miles of railroad which supply the match machines with 200,000 feet of sugar pine and yellow pine logs a day.

Wood for matches is a much more serious problem in some of the European countries than it is yet in the United States. The most suitable match timber is pine, linden, aspen, white cedar, poplar, birch and willow. Others, however, are occasionally used. Germany imports willow and aspen trees from Russia. Some time ago the German match manufacturers petitioned the minister of agriculture to cause the forests to plant aspen in the state forests to supply wood for matches without importing it. A similar petition to their government was presented by the French manufacturers of matches, who wanted a home supply.

At the time the Russian manufacturers asked their government to take measures to check the export of match wood to foreign countries, because the material was needed at home.

In the United States, as well as Canada, a diligent search for choice forests is maintained, and very large tracts have been bought by companies in the match business, not only to meet the present demands, but to provide for years to come. In a single year one match company cut 225,000,000 board feet of pine in the lake region. The cut, however, in that instance was exceptionally large in order to save the timber which was at that time threatened by the ravages of a bark beetle. There are more than 150 match manufacturers in the United States, and about half that number in Canada.
